Motion to Disclose Intercepted Communication to the United States Senate Select Committee on Ethics

The UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, by its attorney, Patrick J. Fitzgerald,
United States Attorney for the Northern District of Illinois, respectfully submits this Motion to Disclose Intercepted Communication to the United States Senate Select Committee on Ethics, and in support of the motion, states as follows:

Statement

1. During the investigation of then-Governor Rod Blagojevich, this Court authorized the interception of wire communications over various phones associated with then-Governor Rod Blagojevich, pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 2518. On October 29, 2008, this Court entered an order authorizing the interception of wire communications over land-line telephone number (773) 404-8667, which was one of the numbers assigned to the office of Blagojevich's campaign committee, Friends of Blagojevich (FOB). Blagojevich's brother, Robert Blagojevich, was the chairman of FOB. The authorization to intercept communications was based on a finding that there was probable cause to believe that Rod Blagojevich and Robert Blagojevich, as well as others, were committing violations of the mail and wire fraud statutes.

(including the deprivation of the right of the people of Illinois to Rod Blagojevich's honest services), extortion, and conspiracy.

2. During the authorized period of interception, on November 13, 2008, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation monitored and recorded a call on the FOB telephone number described above. The call was between Robert Blagojevich and Roland Burris, and related to the Senate seat vacated by President Obama. (A copy of the audio recording and a transcript of the call are being contemporaneously served on the parties, and provided to this Court, as part of this motion as Exhibit 1.)

3. On December 9, 2008, agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation arrested Rod Blagojevich pursuant to a criminal complaint. The criminal complaint charged Rod Blagojevich with, among other things, conspiring to defraud the citizens of Illinois of their right to his honest services, in violation of the mail and wire fraud statutes, 18 U.S.C. §§ 1341, 1343, 1346, and 1349. (08 CR 1010, Docket Entry No. 1.) Among other aspects of the fraud scheme, the complaint charged that Rod Blagojevich conspired and attempted to use his authority to appoint a United States Senator for the purpose of obtaining personal benefits for Blagojevich, including, among other things, appointment as Secretary of Health & Human Services in the President-elect's administration, or alternatively, a lucrative job which Blagojevich and others schemed to induce a union to provide to him in exchange for appointing an individual whom Blagojevich believed the union officials favored. Id. ¶ 13(c), ¶¶ 86-116.

4. On December 30, 2008, then-Governor Blagojevich appointed Mr. Burris to fill President Obama's vacant United States Senate seat.

5. Following an unopposed extension of time to return the indictment under the Speedy Trial Act, on April 2, 2009, the grand jury returned a superseding indictment against Rod Blagojevich, Robert Blagojevich, William Cellini, and others. Among other charges, Blagojevich is charged with, as he was in the criminal complaint, scheming to defraud the people of Illinois of their right to his honest services by (among other things) attempting to obtain personal benefits for himself in exchange for the appointment to the vacant senate seat. 08 CR 888, R. 37 at 33-36.

6. The Select Committee on Ethics of the United States Senate has opened a preliminary inquiry into the "circumstances surrounding the appointment and seating of Senator Roland W. Burris." See Letter of March 19, 2009 at 1 (attached as Exhibit 2). Through a letter signed by the Ethics Committee's Chairman and Vice-Chairman, the Committee has asked the Department of Justice to disclose, among other things, all "intercepted . . . communications in which Senator Burris is a participant or is discussed or mentioned by name and which are related to fund-raising for then-Governor Blagojevich or to the appointment of a replacement to fill the United States Senate seat." Id. at 2.

7. After careful deliberation, the government applies for authorization to disclose one intercepted communication, namely, the November 13th call described supra in Paragraph 2, which falls within the subject matter of the Committee's request. In the government's view, the disclosure of this intercepted communication will not interfere with the ongoing criminal investigation and the prosecution.

8. The United States takes no position on whether or not the Ethics Committee should take further action, or whether the intercepted call supports or rebuts an allegation of improper conduct. By filing this motion, the United States presents only questions of law for this Court's consideration and resolution, namely, whether the Ethics Committee is qualified to receive disclosure of, and thereafter to use, intercepted communications under 18 U.S.C. § 2517(1) and (2).

Legal Analysis

9. As discussed more fully below, although Title 18, United States Code, Section 2510, et seq., does not necessarily require the government to obtain judicial authorization before disclosing intercepted communications to other law enforcement or investigative officers, the government does so here out of an abundance of caution and in order to afford the interceptees in the recorded calls an opportunity to be heard and to object (if they so choose).

10. Section 2517(1) of Title 18 authorizes an investigative or law enforcement officer to disclose the contents of intercepted communications to another "investigative or law enforcement officer" for the proper performance of his or her duties:

Any investigative or law enforcement officer who, by any means authorized by this chapter, has obtained knowledge of the contents of any wire, oral, or electronic communication, or evidence derived therefrom, may disclose such contents to another investigative or law enforcement officer to the extent that such disclosure is appropriate to the proper performance of the official duties of the officer making or receiving the disclosure.

18 U.S.C. § 2517(1).

11. Section 2510(7) defines “investigative or law enforcement officer” as “any officer of the United States . . . who is empowered by law to conduct investigations of or to make arrests for offenses enumerated in this chapter [Chapter 119], and any attorney authorized by law to prosecute or participate in the prosecution of such offenses.” 18 U.S.C. § 2510(7) (emphasis added).

12. The United States Senate is authorized to investigate allegations of improper conduct by its members. The authority is sufficiently broad to encompass a violation of the federal criminal statutes enumerated in Chapter 119 of Title 18. First, the United States Constitution grants each house of Congress the authority to expel its members: “Each House may determine the Rules of its Proceedings, punish its Members for disorderly Behaviour, and, with the Concurrence of two thirds, expel a Member.” U.S. Const., art. I, § 5, cl. 2. Additionally, Senate Resolution 338 established the Select Committee on Ethics and authorizes – indeed places the duty upon – the Committee to “investigate allegations of improper conduct which may reflect upon the Senate” as well as “violations of law.” S. Res. 338, § 2(a)(1) (Exhibit 3 at 3).¹ The Rules of the Committee in turn cite the Resolution in describing the Committee’s subject matter jurisdiction as including the duty to “investigate allegations of improper conduct which may reflect on the Senate” and “violations of law.” Ethics Committee Rules, Part III–Subject Matter Jurisdiction (Exhibit 3 at 48).

¹The Resolution, which has been amended several times since its initial adoption in 1964, and its accompanying Rules are attached as Exhibit 3.

13. For reasons firmly grounded in statutory text and case precedent, the government believes that the Ethics Committee and its staff who are conducting the preliminary inquiry qualify as “investigative or law enforcement officer[s]” to whom federal officers may disclose intercepted communications in the proper performance of their duties.

a. First, the text of § 2510(7) is broad, and includes not only those officers who have power “to make arrests,” but rather also includes those empowered “by law to conduct investigations” of federal offenses. Exercising authority founded on “law” – the United States Constitution and Senate Resolution 338 – the Ethics Committee has initiated a preliminary inquiry of the appointment and seating of Senator Burris. The broad mandate of the United States Constitution and the Senate Resolution encompasses the investigation of alleged federal crimes.

b. Federal courts have construed the scope of an officer’s investigation as including federal offenses so long as the federal offenses may be the predicate for action by the investigatory authority. For example, in a case closely analogous to this one, the Eleventh Circuit affirmed an order permitting disclosure of intercepted communications to the federal House Judiciary Committee, which was investigating whether to recommend impeachment of a federal judge in Florida. In re Grand Jury Proceedings, 841 F.2d 1048, 1054 (11th Cir. 1988), affirming In re Grand Jury 86-3 (Miami), 673 F. Supp. 1569, 1574 (S.D. Fla. 1987). The House Judiciary Committee was qualified to receive disclosure of intercepted communications because it was investigating possible impeachment of the judge, and impeachment may be based on the commission of a federal offense.

c. Similarly, this Court held that the Special Investigative Committee of the Illinois House of Representatives, which the House created by law to investigate whether to impeach then-Governor Blagojevich, was qualified to receive intercepted communications under § 2517(1) and (2). In re Motion to Disclose Intercepted Communications, 594 F. Supp.2d 993, 998 (N.D. Ill. 2009). Relying on In re: Grand Jury Proceedings and other precedent, this Court reasoned that the House Resolution authorizing the Special Investigative Committee was “broad enough to encompass those violations of the federal criminal code listed in section 2516.” Id.; see id. at 997-98 (citing In re Grand Jury Proceedings and In re Electronic Surveillance, 49 F.3d 1188, 1190-91 (6th Cir. 1995)); see also In re Application of United States, 431 F. Supp.2d 544, 547 (E.D. Pa. 2006). Like the House Judiciary Committee and the Illinois Special Investigative Committee, here the Senate Ethics Committee is empowered by the Constitution and Senate Resolution 338 to investigate the federal criminal offenses enumerated in Chapter 119 of Title 18.

14. Moreover, because the Ethics Committee and its investigators qualify to receive the disclosure of the November 13th intercepted communication under § 2517(1), the Committee may further “use” the communications “to the extent such use is appropriate to the proper performance of [their] official duties.” 18 U.S.C. § 2517(2). Both this provision, as well as § 2517(3), permit further disclosure of the intercepted communication into the Ethics Committee's record,² because such record is compiled as part of a "proceeding held under the authority of the United States" 18 U.S.C. § 2517(3).

a. As the government argued in the previous Blagojevich disclosure motion, the term "proceeding" is broad as used in § 2517(3). Indeed, the term is modified by the word "any," which is itself a signal that Congress intended "proceeding" to take a broad meaning. The Seventh Circuit noted, in dictum, that § 2517(3) seems to be complementary to § 2515, which is the statutory provision that contains the general ban on the use of intercepted communications obtained in violation of Title III as evidence in "any trial, hearing, or other proceeding in or before any court, grand jury, department, officer, agency, regulatory body, legislative committee, or other authority of the United States, a State, or a political subdivision thereof" 18 U.S.C. § 2515 (emphasis added) (quoted by In re High Fructose Corn Syrup Antitrust Litigation, 216 F.3d 621, 624 (7th Cir. 2000)). The Seventh Circuit labeled the two provisions "complementary," stating that the word "proceeding" in § 2517(3) "seems merely a shorthand for the longer and unambiguous definition in the complementary section 2515." 216 F.3d at 624.

b. Furthermore, the legislative history makes clear that the text means what it says, and that "proceeding" is not limited to criminal prosecutions. In re Electronic Surveillance, 49 F.3d at 1193 (attorney disciplinary commission is a covered proceeding) (citing Organized Crime Control Act of 1970, Pub.L. No. 91-452, § 902(b), 84 Stat. 947 (1970), and H.R.Rep. No. 91-1549, 1970 U.S.C.C.A.N. 4007, 4036)). As the Sixth Circuit explained, before 1970, the “disclosure of intercepted communications could only be made in connection with state and federal criminal proceedings. Congress amended the subsection (3) in that year to allow disclosure in any authorized proceeding.” 49 F.3d at 1193 (emphasis added). Likewise, federal court decisions interpreting § 2517(1) in the context of disclosures to a federal House Judiciary Committee and a state gambling license commission give a broad definition to the term “any proceeding.” See 841 F.2d 1048, 1054; 431 F. Supp.2d 544, 547. Just so here – the preliminary inquiry is a “proceeding” under § 2517(3), and thus the Ethics Committee may use the intercepted communication in its inquiry.

Conclusion

15. The United States respectfully asks this Court to rule on the questions of law presented and to order that:

a. after providing an opportunity for the interceptees to respond, the United States is authorized to disclose to the Ethics Committee the November 13th intercepted communication (and a transcript thereof) identified by the government; and

b. the Ethics Committee is authorized to use the intercepted communications as appropriate in the proper performance of official duties, including to introduce the recordings into the proceedings of the Committee.

BURRIS: Roland Burris
BLAGOJEVICH: Rob Blagojevich

* * * * *

1 BURRIS (Clears throat) Burris speaking.
2 BLAGOJEVICH Hello Roland, this is Rob Blagojevich
3 again. How are you?
4 BURRIS I'm doing fine, I'm doing fine.
5 What's...(chuckles) what's going on? I
6 was just discussing you yesterday.
7 BLAGOJEVICH (chuckles) Oh, were you. Now this is 8 the governor's brother, not...
9 BURRIS: Alright.
10 BLAGOJEVICH: not the governor.
11 BURRIS I, I know you're calling telling me that 12 you're gonna make me king of the world,
13 and uh...
14 BLAGOJEVICH (laughs)
15 BURRIS ...and therefore I can go off to, you
16 know, wherever and do all these great
17 things (UI).
18 BLAGOJEVICH Well, let me tell ya, one thing I am not 19 is a bullshitter.
20 BURRIS (chuckles)
21 BLAGOJEVICH So I will just shoot straight with you.
22 BURRIS (chuckles) Okay.

1 BLAGOJEVICH And manage expectations. Now I may be,
2 I may be a little bit different than
3 other family members, but I'm not a
4 bullshitter.

5 BURRIS Okay Rob. 'Cause I've been, I've been
6 trying to figure out what the heck, you
7 know, I can do. Go ahead.

8 BLAGOJEVICH Well, I'm just following up.

9 BURRIS: Yeah.

10 BLAGOJEVICH: We've had a number of conversations
11 about, you know, anything you might be 12 able to do; you and Fred might be able
13 to do here before the end of the year
14 for Rod. Again, we're trying to get as 15 much as we can in his war chest, ah, so
16 that when he has to, you know disclose
17 in January...

18 BURRIS Sure.

19 BLAGOJEVICH ...what he's done and if he, you know
20 looks formidable...whoever might be out
21 there.

22 BURRIS Yeah. Right, right and, and now how do, 23 answer me this question because I'm very 24 much interested in, in trying to replace
25 Obama, okay. Now I...

26 BLAGOJEVICH So you, let me just tell you Roland,...

27 BURRIS Yeah.

28 BLAGOJEVICH ...you and one million other people.

29 BURRIS That's right, that's right so...

30 BLAGOJEVICH Of every race, color, creed and faith,
31 it's amazing.

32 BURRIS So let, it is and so if I put on a
33 fundraiser now...

34 BLAGOJEVICH Mm hm.

1 BURRIS ...and, I, you know I, I think it would
2 have something...this is what I've been
3 talking to Fred about it, it has so many 4 negative connotations that Burris is
5 trying to buy an appointment...

6 BLAGOJEVICH Yeah.

7 BURRIS ...from the governor...

8 BLAGOJEVICH Yeah.

9 BURRIS ...for the senate seat. I mean and I'm
10 a high profile person.

11 BLAGOJEVICH Yep.

12 BURRIS You know and, and so, I'm now, 'cause
13 I've been just holding off calling you.

14 BLAGOJEVICH Yeah.

15 BURRIS I'm trying to figure out how in the hell
16 and since you called me I will be honest
17 with you.

18 BLAGOJEVICH Yeah.

19 BURRIS And I'm trying to figure out how to deal
20 with this and still be in the 21 consideration for the appointment.

22 BLAGOJEVICH I hear ya. No, I hear ya.

23 BURRIS And, and if I do that I guarantee you
24 that, that will get out and people said,
25 oh, Burris is doing a fundraiser and,
26 and then Rod and I both gonna catch
27 hell.

28 BLAGOJEVICH Mm hm.

29 BURRIS And if I do get appointed that means I
30 bought it.

31 BLAGOJEVICH Mmmm.

1 BURRIS If I don't get appointed then my people
2 who I'm trying to raise money from are
3 gonna look at me, yeah, what, what's
4 that all about Roland. I mean, so, Rob,
5 I'm in a, I'm in a, a dilemma right now
6 wanting to help the governor.

7 BLAGOJEVICH Yeah.

8 BURRIS I mean I, you know I, I have been with 9 him on all of the, all the issues and 10 I'm now trying to figure out what the 11 hell the best thing to do.

12 BLAGOJEVICH Yeah.

13 BURRIS I know I could give him a check.

14 BLAGOJEVICH Yeah.

15 BURRIS Myself.

16 BLAGOJEVICH Yeah.

17 BURRIS And, and my law partner we were gonna
18 try to do something at the law firm. I
19 might be able to do this in the name of 20 Tim Wright.

21 BLAGOJEVICH Mm hm.

22 BURRIS Okay, 'cause Tim is not looking for an 23 appointment, okay.

24 BLAGOJEVICH Okay.

25 BURRIS So if I can talk to my law partner who's 26 been, you know, in New York trying to 27 drum up business.

28 BLAGOJEVICH Oh, good for you,...

29 BURRIS: (chuckles)

30 BLAGOJEVICH: good for you.

1 BURRIS 'Cause you know he's trying to get a
2 part of that, ah, Federal bail out
3 stuff.

4 BLAGOJEVICH Oh, yeah, yeah.

5 BURRIS Okay, 'cause you know we're, you know
6 he's, we've got a financial law firm
7 here so they're trying to get involved
8 in that. So he'll be back in in a
9 couple days.

10 BLAGOJEVICH Mm hm.

11 BURRIS I think he'll be back in on Monday.

12 BLAGOJEVICH Okay.

13 BURRIS But, ah, but Fred and I, look I said I
14 gotta call you. I have, I have not.

15 BLAGOJEVICH Okay.

16 BURRIS 'Cause I didn't know how to deal with 17 this situation.

18 BLAGOJEVICH ell, ah, you know I'll stand by. I mean
19 if you wanna write a check and have Fred
20 write a check or have someone else write
21 checks, that'd be great. I mean...

22 BURRIS Mm hm.

23 BLAGOJEVICH ...we're, we're just trying to do some 24 clean up here. We've got a number of 25 events we've got like...

26 BURRIS Okay, how, yeah...

27 BLAGOJEVICH ...18 events set up between now and the 28 end of the year.

29 BURRIS Okay. Maybe I can join in on one of 30 those events too. What, what, do you
31 have any going with the people that I
32 know?

1 BLAGOJEVICH You know right now we have no-, you know
2 to be honest with ya I, ah, we have no
3 law firms.

4 BURRIS Okay.

5 BLAGOJEVICH We've got a lot of ethnic groups. A lot
6 of, ah, contract, not a lot of 7 contractors, but, ah,...

8 BURRIS Is, is, is there, ah, I mean I, if you
9 can figure somebody who I might be able
10 to work because no, ah, what's his name
11 Connolly, Wilhelm and Connolly, what's 12 this guy's name, ah, ah,...

13 BLAGOJEVICH Kevin Conlon (ph)?

14 BURRIS Kev., yeah, Kevin Conlon.

15 BLAGOJEVICH He did one already.

16 BURRIS Yeah, right 'cause, ah, and once Fred
17 found out he had done one, we thought
18 maybe we could hook on with him, but he 19 had done his.

20 BLAGOJEVICH Yeah, he did.

21 BURRIS (chuckles) And, and so, we couldn't hook
22 up with him.

23 BLAGOJEVICH Yeah.

24 BURRIS And, and that's what I am wrestling
25 with.

26 BLAGOJEVICH I understand your concerns, ah, Roland.

27 BURRIS And, and God knows number one, I, I
28 wanna help Rod. Number two, I also 29 wanna, you know hope I get a
30 consideration to get that appointment.

31 BLAGOJEVICH Mm hm.

1 BURRIS And, and however that goes, ah, it would
2 dictate, ah, you know how the press
3 treats it.

4 BLAGOJEVICH Understand.

5 BURRIS 'Cause man I, I will be, you know we 6 both would be profiled...

7 BLAGOJEVICH Yeah.

8 BURRIS ...and we don't need that.

9 BLAGOJEVICH Yeah.

10 BURRIS Yeah.

11 BLAGOJEVICH Well, hey, I appreciate your candor.

12 BURRIS Yes.

13 BLAGOJEVICH I, I can't help you with your dilemma
14 other than want to encourage you to,...

15 BURRIS Sure, sure.

16 BLAGOJEVICH ...to do what you think is fair from 17 your standpoint...

18 BURRIS Okay.

19 BLAGOJEVICH ...and Fred's standpoint and ya know,
20 I'll work with you. And if I can think 21 of a place where we can tie you guys in.

22 BURRIS Oh, yeah, ple-, please consider that and 23 give me a call back to, to,...

24 BLAGOJEVICH Okay.

25 BURRIS ...to let me know.

26 BLAGOJEVICH Okay.

27 BURRIS 'Cause I'm working on it. I mean I'm 28 just,...

29 BLAGOJEVICH Yeah.

1 BURRIS ...I'm just trying to figure out what
2 the best way to do where it won't create
3 any, any conflict for either one of us.

4 BLAGOJEVICH Okay Roland. How's your business by the 5 way?

6 BURRIS It's terrible.

7 BLAGOJEVICH Is it? Shit, I'm sorry to hear that.

8 BURRIS I mean, you know Fred and I we might 9 lose Burris and Lebed because we've been 10 trying to get contracts. We don't have 11 any clients renewing for 09.

12 BLAGOJEVICH No kidding.

13 BURRIS We have no clients renewing for 09.
14 Fred is dying on the vine because, I,
15 you know, a lot of our clients have run
16 out.

17 BLAGOJEVICH Yeah.

18 BURRIS And, and so we're thinking about, you
19 know going our separate ways.

20 BLAGOJEVICH Mmmm.

21 BURRIS And I'm going back into the law
22 practice...

23 BLAGOJEVICH Yeah.

24 BURRIS ...rather than the consulting
25 business...

26 BLAGOJEVICH Yeah.

27 BURRIS ...because we don't have any clients.
28 And anything I give would be out of my 29 personal funds...

30 BLAGOJEVICH Yeah.

31 BURRIS ...because there ain't nothing coming in 32 from the business. Ah,...

1 BLAGOJEVICH Mmm. Got that, it is a tough time for
2 everybody I mean...

3 BURRIS It, it, it's bad.

4 BLAGOJEVICH Yeah.

5 BURRIS I mean I, I didn't spring that on you.

6 BLAGOJEVICH Yeah.

7 BURRIS But you, but you asked.

8 BLAGOJEVICH Yeah.

9 BURRIS I mean that, that's, Rob, that's just 10 where it is.

11 BLAGOJEVICH Mm hm.

12 BURRIS Um, at the end of the year if we don't
13 get a major client in, Burris and Lebed
14 will, you know, Fred will go his 15 separate way and I will try to go into 16 the law firm...

17 BLAGOJEVICH Mm hm.

18 BURRIS ...and continue to make some money.

19 BLAGOJEVICH Well, do you have prospects for that?

20 BURRIS Yeah, I'm, I'm of counsel to a law firm.
21 [not monitored]

22 BLAGOJEVICH [resume monitoring]...calling ya.

23 BURRIS Listen,...

24 BLAGOJEVICH Please keep me in mind and you know if 25 you guys can just write checks that'd be 26 fine, if we can't find a way for you to 27 tie in.

28 BURRIS Okay, okay, well we, we, I, I will
29 personally do something, okay.

30 BLAGOJEVICH Okay. Alright Roland.

1 BURRIS And it'll be done before the 15th of
2 December.

3 BLAGOJEVICH Okay.

4 BURRIS Alright. (chuckles)

5 BLAGOJEVICH Alright.

6 BURRIS Okay.

SELECT COMMITTEE ON ETHICS
HART SENATE OFFICE BUILDING, ROOM 220
SECOND AND CONSTITUTION AVENUE, NE
WASHINGTON, DC 20510-6426

March 19, 2009

The Honorable Eric H. Holder, Jr.
Attorney General
U. S. Department of Justice
950 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, DC 20530

Dear Mr. Attorney General:

Pursuant to the authority granted to the Congress in Article I, Section 5, clause 2, of the Constitution of the United States, and the Committee's authorizing resolution, S. Res. 338, 88th Congress, the United States Senate Select Committee on Ethics is conducting a preliminary inquiry into the circumstances surrounding the appointment and seating of Senator Roland W. Burris. As set forth in its authorizing resolution, the investigative jurisdiction of the Committee extends to allegations of improper conduct by Members, officers, and employees of the United States Senate.

The Committee understands from publicly filed documents that the United States Attorney for the Northern District of Illinois is conducting an investigation into possible criminal violations by former Governor Rod R. Blagojevich, and others. According to a criminal complaint issued by a United States Magistrate Judge in the Northern District of Illinois in December 2008, former Governor Blagojevich is alleged to have conspired to defraud the citizens of Illinois of their right to his honest and faithful services as governor of the State of Illinois, in violation of various provisions of Title 18 of the United States Code. In paragraphs 2 and 14 of the affidavit filed in support of the complaint, the affiant informed the court that the United States had applied for and had received court authorization to intercept oral communications at a particular location and wire communications over the telephone at the former governor's residence. Additionally, it appears from the affidavit supporting the complaint that, as part of its investigation, the government obtained consensually-recorded conversations, pen register information, trap and trace information, and telephone toll record information. It is specifically charged in the complaint that, as part of the continuing scheme to defraud, former Governor Blagojevich conspired and attempted to use his authority to appoint a United States Senator for the purpose of obtaining personal benefits for himself.

The Committee also understands that the United States Attorney supported a December 2008 request for access to certain Title III-related materials made by the Special Investigative Committee established by the Illinois House of Representatives on December 15, 2008 for the purpose of investigating allegations of misconduct of former Governor Blagojevich and making a recommendation as to whether cause exists for impeachment. In support, the United States Attorney filed a motion with the court seeking an order authorizing disclosure to the Special Investigative Committee. On January 23, 2009, the court granted the government's motion and authorized the disclosure of Title III-related materials to the Special Investigative Committee and the use of those materials in the impeachment trial of the former governor.

The Select Committee on Ethics requests that the Department of Justice, including the Federal Bureau of Investigation, make available to the Committee for its use in connection with its preliminary inquiry the following information:

1. All consensually recorded or intercepted oral, wire, or electronic communications in which Senator Roland Burris is a participant or is discussed or mentioned by name and which are related to fundraising for then-Governor Blagojevich or to the appointment of a replacement to fill the United States Senate seat vacated by then-Senator or then-President elect Barack Obama.
2. For the period beginning on or about April 1, 2008 to the present, all records that indicate communications to or from a telephone associated with Senator Roland Burris or a known representative of Senator Burris and then-Governor Blagojevich or a known representative of then-Governor Blagojevich.

The Committee seeks disclosure of the above-described information, pursuant to its investigative jurisdiction and in accordance with the Committee's Rules of Procedure to determine, without interfering with a federal (or state) criminal investigation or prosecution, whether there is substantial credible evidence which provides substantial cause for the Committee to conclude that a violation within the jurisdiction of the Select Committee has occurred in connection with Senator Burris's conduct. The Committee asks that the Department seek a court order to the extent that it deems such an order necessary or appropriate to respond favorably to the Committee's request. Should the Department deem it helpful, Committee staff counsel will be available to meet with officials of the Department to discuss the particular steps that can be taken to accommodate the needs of the Department and the request of the Committee.

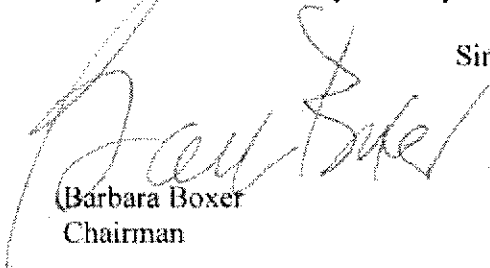

The Committee notes that there is precedent for the Department of Justice to support a request to disclose to the Committee for its use, in connection with an investigation, materials obtained by the Department of Justice during a criminal investigation, including but not limited to recordings of conversations intercepted pursuant to a court order issued under 18 U.S.C. § 2518. In United States v. Dorfman, No. 81 CR 269 (N.D. Ill. 1981), one of several instances where the Department supported a request for Title III-related materials in connection with a Committee investigation, the United States moved for an order permitting the Department of Justice and Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation to disclose Title III-related evidence that the Committee had sought from the Department of Justice in connection with the Committee's investigation of allegations of misconduct by a Member of the Senate. Ruling from the bench, the District Court held that the Select Committee on Ethics, and its staff, are investigative or law enforcement officers, as defined in 18 U.S.C. §§ 2510(7) and 2517(1), and that disclosure may be made to the Committee and staff to the extent such disclosure is appropriate to the proper performance of the official duties of the officer making or receiving the disclosure. Further, the courts have held that because the Committee and staff are authorized to receive disclosure under § 2517(1), the Committee may "use" the communications to the extent such use is appropriate to the proper performance of the Committee's duties. See 18 U.S.C. § 2517(2); United States v. Dorfman, No. 81 CR 229 (N.D. Ill. 1981); see also In re Grand Jury Proceedings, 841 F.2d 1048 (11th Cir. 1988).

In past instances when the Department of Justice has supported a request of the Committee for Title III-related materials in connection with a Committee investigation, the Department and the Committee reached agreement on the proper handling of the materials by the Committee. The Committee's non-disclosure policy, set forth in the Committee's Supplementary Procedural Rules, applies to the conduct of all Committee proceedings. No Member of the Committee, its staff or any person engaged by contract or otherwise to perform services for the Committee, may divulge or disclose in any way, in whole or in part, during tenure with the Committee or at any time thereafter, any information, that may come into the possession of such person during tenure with the Committee or its staff. Such information may be disclosed only when authorized by the Committee under circumstances described in the enclosed copy of the Committee's rules. The Committee is prepared to submit a proposed agreement that the Department and the Committee have used in the past under similar circumstances. The agreement will specify a procedure that will provide substantial safeguards to the Department of Justice while preserving the Senate's Constitutional prerogatives.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely,

(Barbara Boxer

Resolved, That (a) there is hereby established a permanent select committee of the Senate to be known as the Select Committee on Ethics (referred to hereinafter as the "Select Committee") consisting of six Members of the Senate, of whom three shall be selected from members of the majority party and three shall be selected from members of the minority party. During the transaction of routine business any member of the Select Committee constituting the quorum shall have the right to postpone further discussion of a pending matter until such time as a majority of the members of the Select Committee are present.

(3) The Select Committee may fix a lesser number as a quorum for the purpose of taking sworn testimony.³

(b) (1) A member of the Select Committee shall be ineligible to participate in—

(A) any preliminary inquiry or adjudicatory review relating to—

(i) the conduct of—

(I) such member;

(II) any officer or employee the member supervises; or

(III) any employee of any officer the member supervises; or

(ii) any complaint filed by the member; and

(B) the determinations and recommendations of the Select Committee with respect to any preliminary inquiry or adjudicatory review described in subparagraph (A).

For purposes of this paragraph, a member of the Select Committee and an officer of the Senate shall be deemed to supervise any officer or employee consistent with the provision of paragraph 12 of Rule XXXVII of the Standing Rules of the Senate.

(2) A member of the Select Committee may, at the discretion of the member, disqualify himself or herself from participating in any preliminary inquiry or adjudicatory review pending before the Select Committee and the determinations and recommendations of the Select Committee with respect to any such preliminary inquiry or adjudicatory review. Notice of such disqualification shall be given in writing to the President of the Senate.

(3) Whenever any member of the Select Committee is ineligible under paragraph (1) to participate in any preliminary inquiry or adjudicatory review or disqualifies himself or herself under paragraph (2) from participating in any preliminary inquiry or adjudicatory review, another Senator shall, subject to the provisions of subsection (d), be appointed to serve as a member of the Select Committee solely for purposes of such preliminary inquiry or adjudicatory review and the determinations and recommendations of the Select Committee with respect to such preliminary inquiry or adjudicatory review. Any Member of the Senate appointed for such purposes shall be of the same party as the Member who is ineligible or disqualifies himself or herself.⁴

Sec. 2. (a) It shall be the duty of the Select Committee to—

(1) receive complaints and investigate allegations of improper conduct which may reflect upon the Senate, violations of law, violations of the Senate Code of Official Conduct⁵ and violations of rules and regulations of the Senate, relating to the conduct of individuals in the performance of their duties as Members of the Senate, or as officers or employees of the Senate, and to make appropriate findings of fact and conclusions with respect thereto;

(ii) in the case of an officer or employee, dismissal, suspension, payment of restitution, or a combination of these;

(3) subject to the provisions of subsection (e), by a unanimous vote of 6 members, order that a Member, officer, or employee be reprimanded or pay restitution, or both, if the Select Committee determines, after according to the Member, officer, or employee due notice and opportunity for a hearing, that

³ Subsection 3 was amended by S. Res. 78, 97th Cong., 1st Sess. (1981).

⁵ Reference to Senate Code of Official Conduct was added by S. Res. 110, § 201, 95th Cong., 1st Sess. (1977).

misconduct occurred warranting discipline less serious than discipline by the full Senate;

(4) in the circumstances described in subsection (d)(3), issue a public or private letter of admonition to a Member, officer, or employee, which shall not be subject to appeal to the Senate;

(5) recommend to the Senate, by report or resolution, such additional rules or regulations as the Select Committee shall determine to be necessary or desirable to insure proper standards of conduct by Members of the Senate, and by officers or employees of the Senate, in the performance of their duties and the discharge of their responsibilities;

(6) by a majority vote of the full committee, report violations of any law, including the provision of false information to the Select Committee, to the proper Federal and State authorities; and

(7) develop and implement programs and materials designed to educate Members, officers, and employees about the laws, rules, regulations, and standards of conduct applicable to such individuals in the performance of their duties.

(b) For the purposes of this resolution—

(1) the term "sworn complaint" means a written statement of facts, submitted under penalty of perjury, within the personal knowledge of the complainant alleging a violation of law, the Senate Code of Official Conduct, or any other rule or regulation of the Senate relating to the conduct of individuals in the performance of their duties as Members, officers, or employees of the Senate;

(2) the term "preliminary inquiry" means a proceeding undertaken by the Select Committee following the receipt of a complaint or allegation of, or information about, misconduct by a Member, officer, or employee of the Senate to determine whether there is substantial credible evidence which provides substantial cause for the Select Committee to conclude that a violation within the jurisdiction of the Select Committee has occurred; and

(3) the term "adjudicatory review" means a proceeding undertaken by the Select Committee after a finding, on the basis of a preliminary inquiry, that there is substantial credible evidence which provides substantial cause for the Select Committee to conclude that a violation within the jurisdiction of the Select Committee has occurred.

(c) (1) No—

(A) adjudicatory review of conduct of a Member or officer of the Senate may be conducted;

(B) report, resolution, or recommendation relating to such an adjudicatory review of conduct may be made; and

(C) letter of admonition pursuant to subsection (d)(3) may be issued, unless approved by the affirmative recorded vote of no fewer than 4 members of the Select Committee.

(2) No other resolution, report, recommendation, interpretative ruling, or advisory opinion may be made without an affirmative vote of a majority of the Members of the Select Committee voting.

(d) (1) When the Select Committee receives a sworn complaint or other allegation or information about a Member, officer, or employee of the Senate, it shall promptly conduct a preliminary inquiry into matters raised by that complaint, allegation, or information. The preliminary inquiry shall be of duration and scope necessary to determine whether there is substantial credible evidence which provides substantial cause for the Select Committee to conclude that a violation within the jurisdiction of the Select Committee has occurred. The Select Committee may delegate to the chairman and vice chairman the discretion to determine the appropriate duration, scope, and conduct of a preliminary inquiry.

(2) If, as a result of a preliminary inquiry under paragraph (1), the Select Committee determines by a recorded vote that there is not such substantial credible evidence, the Select Committee shall dismiss the matter. The Select Committee may delegate to the chairman and vice chairman the authority, on behalf of the Select Committee, to dismiss any matter that they determine, after a preliminary inquiry, lacks substantial merit. The Select Committee shall inform the individual who provided to the Select Committee the complaint, allegation, or information, and the individual who is the subject of the complaint, allegation, or information, of the dismissal, together with an explanation of the basis for the dismissal.

(3) If, as a result of a preliminary inquiry under paragraph (1), the Select Committee determines that a violation is inadvertent, technical, or otherwise of a de minimis nature, the Select Committee may dispose of the matter by issuing a public or private letter of admonition, which shall not be considered discipline. The Select Committee may issue a public letter of admonition upon a similar determination at the conclusion of an adjudicatory review.

(4) If, as a result of a preliminary inquiry under paragraph (1), the Select Committee determines that there is such substantial credible evidence and the matter cannot be appropriately disposed of under paragraph (3), the Select Committee shall promptly initiate an adjudicatory review. Upon the conclusion of such adjudicatory review, the Select Committee shall report to the Senate, as soon as practicable, the results of such adjudicatory review, together with its recommendations (if any) pursuant to subsection (a)(2).

(e) (1) Any individual who is the subject of a reprimand or order of restitution, or both, pursuant to subsection (a)(3) may, within 30 days of the Select Committee's report to the Senate of its action imposing a reprimand or order of restitution, or both, appeal to the Senate by providing written notice of the basis for the appeal to the Select Committee and the presiding officer of the Senate. The presiding officer of the Senate shall cause the notice of the appeal to be printed in the Congressional Record and the Senate Journal.

(2) A motion to proceed to consideration of an appeal pursuant to paragraph (1) shall be highly privileged and not debatable. If the motion to proceed to consideration of the appeal is agreed to, the appeal shall be decided on the basis of the Select Committee's report to the Senate. Debate on the appeal shall be limited to 10 hours, which shall be divided equally between, and controlled by, those favoring and those opposing the appeal.

(f) The Select Committee may, in its discretion, employ hearing examiners to hear testimony and make findings of fact and/or recommendations to the Select Committee concerning the disposition of complaints.

(g) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, no adjudicatory review shall be initiated of any alleged violation of any law, the Senate Code of Official Conduct, rule, or regulation which was not in effect at the time the alleged violation occurred. No provisions of the Senate Code of Official Conduct shall apply to or require disclosure of any act, relationship, or transaction which occurred prior to the effective date of the applicable provision of the Code. The Select Committee may initiate an adjudicatory review of any alleged violation of a rule or law which was in effect prior to the enactment of the Senate Code of Official Conduct if the alleged violation occurred while such rule or law was in effect and the violation was not a matter resolved on the merits by the predecessor Select Committee.

(h) The Select Committee shall adopt written rules setting forth procedures to be used in conducting preliminary inquiries and adjudicatory reviews.

(i) The Select Committee from time to time shall transmit to the Senate its recommendation as to any legislative measures which it may consider to be necessary for the effective discharge of its duties.⁶

Sec. 3. (a) The Select Committee is authorized to (1) make such expenditures; (2) hold such hearings; (3) sit and act at such times and places during the sessions, recesses, and adjournment periods of the Senate; (4) require by subpoena or otherwise the attendance of such witnesses and the production of such correspondence, books, papers, and documents; (5) administer such oaths; (6) take such testimony orally or by deposition; (7) employ and fix the compensation of a staff director, a counsel, an assistant counsel, one or more investigators, one or more hearing examiners⁷, and such technical, clerical, and other assistants and consultants as it deems advisable; and (8) to procure the temporary services (not in excess of one year) or intermittent services of individual consultants, or organizations thereof, by contract as independent contractors or, in the case of individuals, by employment at daily rates of compensation not in excess of the per diem equivalent of the highest rate of compensation which may be paid to a regular employee of the Select Committee.⁸

(b) (1) The Select Committee is authorized to retain and compensate counsel not employed by the Senate (or by any department or agency of the executive branch of the Government) whenever the Select Committee determines that the retention of outside counsel is necessary or appropriate for any action regarding any complaint or allegation, which, in the determination of the Select Committee is more appropriately conducted by counsel not employed by the Government of the United States as a regular employee.⁹

(2) Any adjudicatory review as defined in section 2(b)(3) shall be conducted by outside counsel as authorized in paragraph (1), unless the Select Committee determines not to use outside counsel.¹⁰

(c) With the prior consent of the department or agency concerned, the Select Committee may (1) utilize the services, information and facilities of any such

Sec. 6. (a) The Select Committee on Standards and Conduct of the Senate (NOTE: Now the Select Committee on Ethics) shall provide guidance, assistance, advice and counsel, through advisory opinions or consultations, in connection with the mailing or contemplated mailing of franked mail under section 3210, 3211, 3212, 3218(2) or 3218, and in connection with the operation of section 3215, of title 39, United States Code, upon the request of any Member of the Senate or Member-elect, surviving spouse of any of the foregoing, or other Senate official, entitled to send mail as franked mail under any of those sections. The select committee shall prescribe regulations governing the proper use of the franking privilege under those sections by such persons.

(b) Any complaint filed by any person with the select committee that a violation of any section of title 39, United States Code, referred to in subsection (a) of this section is about to occur or has occurred within the immediately preceding period of 1 year, by any person referred to in such subsection (a), shall contain pertinent factual material and shall conform to regulations prescribed by the select committee. The select committee, if it determines there is reasonable justification for the complaint, shall conduct an investigation of the matter, including an investigation of reports and statements filed by that complainant with respect to the matter which is the subject of the complaint. The committee shall afford to the person who is the subject of the complaint due notice and, if it determines that there is substantial reason to believe that such violation has occurred or is about to occur, opportunity for all parties to participate in a hearing before the select committee. The select committee shall issue a written decision on each complaint under this subsection not later than thirty days after such a complaint has been filed or, if a hearing is held, not later than thirty days after the conclusion of such hearing. Such decision shall be based on written findings of fact in the case by the select committee. If the select committee finds, in its written decision, that a violation has occurred or is about to occur, the committee may take such action and enforcement as it considers appropriate in accordance with applicable rules, precedents, and standing orders of the Senate, and such other standards as may be prescribed by such committee.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no court or administrative body in the United States or in any territory thereof shall have jurisdiction to entertain any civil action of any character concerning or related to a violation of the franking laws or an abuse of the franking privilege by any person listed under subsection (a) of this section as entitled to send mail as franked mail, until a complaint has been filed with the select committee and the committee has rendered a decision under subsection (b) of this section.

(d) The select committee shall prescribe regulations for the holding of investigations and hearings, the conduct of proceedings, and the rendering of decisions under this subsection providing for equitable procedures and the protection of individual, public, and Government interests. The regulations shall, insofar as practicable, contain the substance of the administrative procedure provisions of sections 551-559 and 701-706, of title 5, United States Code. These regulations shall govern matters under this subsection subject to judicial review thereof.

(e) The select committee shall keep a complete record of all its actions, including a record of the votes on any question on which a record vote is demanded. All records, data, and files of the select committee shall be the property of the Senate and shall be kept in the offices of the select committee or such other places as the committee may direct.

"(i) a tangible gift of more than minimal value is deemed to have been accepted on behalf of the United States and, upon acceptance, shall become the property of the United States; and

"(ii) an employee may accept gifts of travel or expenses for travel taking place entirely outside the United States (such as transportation, food, and lodging) of more than minimal value if such acceptance is appropriate, consistent with the interests of the United States, and permitted by the employing agency and any regulations which may be prescribed by the employing agency.

(d) The Congress consents to the accepting, retaining, and wearing by an employee of a decoration tendered in recognition of active field service in time of combat operations or awarded for other outstanding or unusually meritorious performance, subject to the approval of the employing agency of such employee. Without this approval, the decoration is deemed to have been accepted on behalf of the United States, shall become the property of the United States, and shall be deposited by the employee, within sixty days of acceptance, with the employing agency for official use, for forwarding to the Administrator of General Services for disposal in accordance with subsection (e)(1), or for disposal in accordance with subsection (e)(2).

(e) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), gifts and decorations that have been deposited with an employing agency for disposal shall be (A) returned to the donor, or (B) forwarded to the Administrator of General Services for transfer, donation, or other disposal in accordance with the provisions of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949. However, no gift or decoration that has been deposited for disposal may be sold without the approval of the Secretary of State, upon a determination that the sale will not adversely affect the foreign relations of the United States. Gifts and decorations may be sold by negotiated sale.

(2) Gifts and decorations received by a Senator or an employee of the Senate that are deposited with the Secretary of the Senate for disposal, or are deposited for an official use which has terminated, shall be disposed of by the Commission on Arts and Antiquities of the United States Senate. Any such gift or decoration not disposed of as provided in the preceding sentence shall be forwarded to the Administrator of General Services for disposal in accordance with paragraph (1). If the Administrator does not dispose of such gift or decoration within one year, he shall, at the request of the Commission, return it to the Commission and the Commission may dispose of such gift or decoration in such manner as it considers proper, except that such gift or decoration may be sold only with the approval of the Secretary of State upon a determination that the sale will not adversely affect the foreign relations of the United States.

(f) (1) Not later than January 31 of each year, each employing agency or its delegate shall compile a listing of all statements filed during the preceding year by the employees of that agency pursuant to subsection (c)(3) and shall transmit such listing to the Secretary of State who shall publish a comprehensive listing of all such statements in the Federal Register.

(2) Such listings shall include for each tangible gift reported—

“(A) the name and position of the employee;

“(B) a brief description of the gift and the circumstances justifying acceptance;

“(C) the identity, if known, of the foreign government and the name and position of the individual who presented the gift;

(g) (1) Each employing agency shall prescribe such regulations as may be necessary to carry out the purpose of this section. For all employing agencies in the executive branch, such regulations shall be prescribed pursuant to guidance provided by the Secretary of State. These regulations shall be implemented by each employing agency for its employees.

"(2) Each employing agency shall—

"(A) report to the Attorney General cases in which there is reason to believe that an employee has violated this section;

"(B) establish a procedure for obtaining an appraisal, when necessary, of the value of gifts; and

"(C) take any other actions necessary to carry out the purpose of this section.

"(3) The Attorney General may bring a civil action in any district court of the United States against any employee who knowingly solicits or accepts a gift from a foreign government not consented to by this section or who fails to deposit or report such gift as required by this section. The court in which such action is brought may assess a penalty against such employee in any amount not to exceed the retail value of the gift improperly solicited or received plus $5,000.

"(4) The President shall direct all Chiefs of a United States Diplomatic Mission to inform their host governments that it is a general policy of the United States Government to prohibit United States Government employees from receiving gifts or decorations of more than minimal value.

"(5) Nothing in this section shall be construed to derogate any regulation prescribed by any employing agency which provides for more stringent limitations on the receipt of gifts and decorations by its employees.

"(6) The provisions of this section do not apply to grants and other forms of assistance to which section 108A of the Mutual Educational and Cultural Exchange Act of 1961 applies."

During the transaction of routine business any member of the Select Committee constituting the quorum shall have the right to postpone further discussion of a pending matter until such time as a majority of the members of the Select Committee are present.

(3) Except for an adjudicatory hearing under Rule 5 and any deposition taken outside the presence of a Member under Rule 6, one Member shall constitute a quorum for hearing testimony, provided that all Members have been given notice of the hearing and the Chairman has designated a Member of the Majority Party and the Vice Chairman has designated a Member of the Minority Party to be in attendance, either of whom in the absence of the other may constitute the quorum.

ORDER OF BUSINESS: Questions as to the order of business and the procedure of the Committee shall in the first instance be decided by the Chairman and Vice Chairman, subject to reversal by a vote by a majority of the Committee.

HEARINGS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS: The Committee shall make public announcement of the date, place and subject matter of any hearing to be conducted by it at least one week before the commencement of that hearing, and shall publish such announcement in the Congressional Record. OPEN AND CLOSED COMMITTEE MEETINGS: Meetings of the Committee shall be open to the public or closed to the public (executive session), as determined under the provisions of paragraphs 5 (b) to (d) of Rule XXVI of the Standing Rules of the Senate. Executive session meetings of the Committee shall be closed except to the members and the staff of the Committee. On the motion of any member, and with the approval of a majority of the Committee members present, other individuals may be admitted to an executive session meeting for a specific period or purpose.

(2) All testimony and action relating to a complaint or allegation shall be kept secret and shall not be released by the Committee to any individual or group, whether governmental or private, except the respondent, without the approval of a majority of the Committee, until such time as a report to the Senate is required under Senate Resolution 338, 88th Congress, as amended, or unless otherwise permitted under these Rules. (See Rule 8 on Procedures for Handling Committee Sensitive and Classified Materials.)

(3) RELEASE OF REPORTS TO PUBLIC: No information pertaining to, or copies of any Committee report, study, or other document which purports to express the view, findings, conclusions or recommendations of the Committee in connection with any of its activities or proceedings may be released to any individual or group whether governmental or private, without the authorization of the Committee. Whenever the Chairman or Vice Chairman is authorized to make any determination, then the determination may be released at his or her discretion. (See Rule 8 on Procedures for Handling Committee Sensitive and Classified Materials.)

(k) INELIGIBILITY OR DISQUALIFICATION OF MEMBERS AND STAFF:

(1) A member of the Committee shall be ineligible to participate in any Committee proceeding that relates specifically to any of the following:

If either the Chairman or the Vice Chairman concludes from the report that it appears that the member may be ineligible, the member shall be notified in writing of the nature of the particular proceeding and the reason that it appears that the member may be ineligible to participate in it. If the member agrees that he or she is ineligible, the member shall so notify the Chairman or Vice Chairman. If the member believes that he or she is not ineligible, he or she may explain the reasons to the Chairman and Vice Chairman, and if they both agree that the member is not ineligible, the member shall continue to serve. But if either the Chairman or Vice Chairman continues to believe that the member is ineligible, while the member believes that he or she is not ineligible, the matter shall be promptly referred to the Committee. The member shall present his or her arguments to the Committee in executive session. Any contested questions concerning a member's eligibility shall be decided by a majority vote of the Committee, meeting in executive session, with the member in question not participating.

(3) A member of the Committee may, at the discretion of the member, disqualify himself or herself from participating in any preliminary inquiry or adjudicatory review pending before the Committee and the determinations and recommendations of the Committee with respect to any such preliminary inquiry or adjudicatory review.

(4) Whenever any member of the Committee is ineligible under paragraph (1) to participate in any preliminary inquiry or adjudicatory review, or disqualifies himself or herself under paragraph (3) from participating in any preliminary inquiry or adjudicatory review, another Senator shall be appointed by the Senate to serve as a member of the Committee solely for purposes of such preliminary inquiry or adjudicatory review and the determinations and recommendations of the Committee with respect to such preliminary inquiry or adjudicatory review. Any member of the Senate appointed for such purposes shall be of the same party as the member who is ineligible or disqualifies himself or herself.

(1) RECORDED VOTES: Any member may require a recorded vote on any matter.

(m) PROXIES; RECORDING VOTES OF ABSENT MEMBERS:

(1) Proxy voting shall not be allowed when the question before the Committee is the initiation or continuation of a preliminary inquiry or an adjudicatory review, or the issuance of a report or recommendation related thereto concerning a Member or officer of the Senate. In any such case an absent member's vote may be announced solely for the purpose of recording the member's position and such announced votes shall not be counted for or against the motion.

(2) On matters other than matters listed in paragraph (m)(1) above, the Committee may order that the record be held open for the vote of absentees or recorded proxy votes if the absent Committee member has been informed of the matter on which the vote occurs and has affirmatively requested of the Chairman or Vice Chairman in writing that he be so recorded.

(3) All proxies shall be in writing, and shall be delivered to the Chairman or Vice Chairman to be recorded.

(4) Proxies shall not be considered for the purpose of establishing a quorum.

(5) APPROVAL OF BLIND TRUSTS AND FOREIGN TRAVEL REQUESTS BETWEEN SESSIONS AND DURING EXTENDED RECESSES: During any period in which the Senate stands in adjournment between sessions of the Congress or stands in a recess scheduled to extend beyond fourteen days, the Chairman and Vice Chairman, or their designees, acting jointly, are authorized to approve or disapprove blind trusts under the provision of Rule XXXIV.

(6) COMMITTEE USE OF SERVICES OR EMPLOYEES OF OTHER AGENCIES AND DEPARTMENTS: With the prior consent of the department or agency involved, the Committee may (1) utilize the services, information, or facilities of any such department or agency of the Government, and (2) employ it on a reimbursable basis or otherwise the services of such personnel of any such department or agency as it deems advisable. With the consent of any other committee of the Senate, or any subcommittee, the Committee may utilize the facilities and the services of the staff of such other committee or subcommittee whenever the Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Committee, acting jointly, determine that such action is necessary and appropriate.

RULE 2: PROCEDURES FOR COMPLAINTS, ALLEGATIONS, OR INFORMATION

(a) COMPLAINT, ALLEGATION, OR INFORMATION: Any member or staff member of the Committee shall report to the Committee, and any other person may report to the Committee, a sworn complaint or other allegation or information, alleging that any Senator, or officer, or employee of the Senate has violated a law, the Senate Code of Official Conduct, or any rule or regulation of the Senate relating to the conduct of any individual in the performance of his or her duty as a Member, officer, or employee of the Senate, or has engaged in improper conduct which may reflect upon the Senate. Such complaints or allegations or information may be reported to the Chairman, the Vice Chairman, a committee member, or a Committee staff member.

(b) SOURCE OF COMPLAINT, ALLEGATION, OR INFORMATION: Complaints, allegations, and information to be reported to the Committee may be obtained from a variety of sources, including but not limited to the following:

(1) sworn complaints, defined as a written statement of facts, submitted under penalty of perjury, within the personal knowledge of the complainant alleging a violation of law, the Senate Code of Official Conduct, or any other rule or regulation of the Senate relating to the conduct of individuals in the performance of their duties as members, officers, or employees of the Senate;

(2) anonymous or informal complaints;

(3) information developed during a study or inquiry by the Committee or other committees or subcommittees of the Senate, including information obtained in connection with legislative or general oversight hearings;

(4) information reported by the news media; or

(5) information obtained from any individual, agency or department of the executive branch of the Federal Government.

(c) FORM AND CONTENT OF COMPLAINTS: A complaint need not be sworn nor must it be in any particular form to receive Committee consideration, but the preferred complaint will:

(1) state, whenever possible, the name, address, and telephone number of the party filing the complaint;

(2) provide the name of each member, officer or employee of the Senate who is specifically alleged to have engaged in improper conduct or committed a violation;

(3) state the nature of the alleged improper conduct or violation;

(4) supply all documents in the possession of the party filing the complaint relevant to or in support of his or her allegations as an attachment to the complaint.

RULE 3: PROCEDURES FOR CONDUCTING A PRELIMINARY INQUIRY

(a) DEFINITION OF PRELIMINARY INQUIRY: A "preliminary inquiry" is a proceeding undertaken by the Committee following the receipt of a complaint or allegation of, or information about, misconduct by a Member, officer, or employee of the Senate to determine whether there is substantial credible evidence which provides substantial cause for the Committee to conclude that a violation within the jurisdiction of the Committee has occurred.

(b) BASIS FOR PRELIMINARY INQUIRY: The Committee shall promptly commence a preliminary inquiry whenever it has received a sworn complaint, or other allegation of, or information about, alleged misconduct or violations pursuant to Rule 2.

(c) SCOPE OF PRELIMINARY INQUIRY:

(1) The preliminary inquiry shall be of such duration and scope as is necessary to determine whether there is substantial credible evidence which provides substantial cause for the Committee to conclude that a violation within the jurisdiction of the Committee has occurred. The Chairman and Vice Chairman, acting jointly, on behalf of the Committee may supervise and determine the appropriate duration, scope, and conduct of a preliminary inquiry. Whether a preliminary inquiry is conducted jointly by the Chairman and Vice Chairman or by the Committee as a whole, the day to day supervision of a preliminary inquiry rests with the Chairman and Vice Chairman, acting jointly.

(2) A preliminary inquiry may include any inquiries, interviews, sworn statements, depositions, or subpoenas deemed appropriate to obtain information upon which to make any determination provided for by this Rule.

(d) OPPORTUNITY FOR RESPONSE: A preliminary inquiry may include an opportunity for any known respondent or his or her designated representative to present either a written or oral statement, or to respond orally to questions from the Committee. Such an oral statement or answers shall be transcribed and signed by the person providing the statement or answers.

(e) STATUS REPORTS: The Committee staff or outside counsel shall periodically report to the Committee in the form and according to the schedule prescribed by the Committee. The reports shall be confidential.

(f) FINAL REPORT: When the preliminary inquiry is completed, the staff or outside counsel shall make a confidential report, oral or written, to the Committee of findings and recommendations, as appropriate.

(g) COMMITTEE ACTION: As soon as practicable following submission of the report on the preliminary inquiry, the Committee shall determine by a recorded vote whether there is substantial credible evidence which provides substantial cause for the Committee to conclude that a violation within the jurisdiction of the Committee has occurred. The Committee may make any of the following determinations:

(1) The Committee may determine that there is not such substantial credible evidence and, in such case, the Committee shall dismiss the matter. The Committee, or Chairman and Vice Chairman acting jointly on behalf of the Committee, may dismiss any matter which, after a preliminary inquiry, is determined to lack substantial merit. The Committee shall inform the complainant of the dismissal.

(2) The Committee may determine that there is such substantial credible evidence, but that the alleged violation is inadvertent, technical, or otherwise of a de minimis nature. In such case, the Committee may dispose of the matter by issuing a public or private letter of admonition, which shall not be considered discipline and which shall not be subject to appeal to the Senate. The issuance of a letter of admonition must be approved by the affirmative recorded vote of no fewer than four members of the Committee voting.

(3) The Committee may determine that there is such substantial credible evidence and that the matter cannot be appropriately disposed of under paragraph (2). In such case, the Committee shall promptly initiate an adjudicatory review in accordance with Rule 4. No adjudicatory review of conduct of a Member, officer, or employee of the Senate may be initiated except by the affirmative recorded vote of not less than four members of the Committee.

RULE 4: PROCEDURES FOR CONDUCTING AN ADJUDICATORY REVIEW

(a) DEFINITION OF ADJUDICATORY REVIEW: An "adjudicatory review" is a proceeding undertaken by the Committee after a finding, on the basis of a preliminary inquiry, that there is substantial cause for the Committee to conclude that a violation within the jurisdiction of the Committee has occurred.

(b) SCOPE OF ADJUDICATORY REVIEW: When the Committee decides to conduct an adjudicatory review, it shall be of such duration and scope as is necessary for the Committee to determine whether a violation within its jurisdiction has occurred. An adjudicatory review shall be conducted by outside counsel as authorized by section 3(b)(1) of Senate Resolution 338 unless the Committee determines not to use outside counsel. In the course of the adjudicatory review, designated outside counsel, or if the Committee determines not to use outside counsel, the Committee or its staff, may conduct any inquiries or interviews, take sworn statements, use compulsory process as described in Rule 6, or take any other actions that the Committee deems appropriate to secure the evidence necessary to make a determination.

(c) NOTICE TO RESPONDENT: The Committee shall give written notice to any known respondent who is the subject of an adjudicatory review. The notice shall be sent to the respondent no later than five working days after the Committee has voted to conduct an adjudicatory review. The notice shall include a statement of the nature of the possible violation, and description of the evidence indicating at a possible violation occurred. The Committee may offer the respondent an opportunity to present a statement, orally or in writing, or to respond to questions from members of the Committee, the Committee staff, or outside counsel.

5) RIGHT TO A HEARING: The Committee shall accord a respondent an opportunity for a hearing before it recommends disciplinary action against that respondent to the Senate or before it imposes an order of restitution or reprimand not requiring discipline by the full Senate).

6) PROGRESS REPORTS TO COMMITTEE: The Committee staff or outside counsel shall periodically report to the Committee concerning the progress of the disciplinary review. Such reports shall be delivered to the Committee in the form and according to the schedule prescribed by the Committee, and shall be confidential.

7) FINAL REPORT OF ADJUDICATORY REVIEW TO COMMITTEE: Upon completion of an adjudicatory review, including any hearings held pursuant to rule 5, the outside counsel or the staff shall submit a confidential written report to the Committee, which shall detail the factual findings of the adjudicatory review and which may recommend disciplinary action, if appropriate. Findings of fact of the adjudicatory review shall be detailed in this report whether or not disciplinary action is recommended.

8) COMMITTEE ACTION:

1) As soon as practicable following submission of the report of the staff or outside counsel on the adjudicatory review, the Committee shall prepare and submit a report to the Senate, including a recommendation or proposed resolution to the Senate concerning disciplinary action, if appropriate. A report shall be issued, stating in detail the Committee's findings of fact, whether or not disciplinary action is recommended. The report shall also explain fully the reasons underlying the Committee's recommendation concerning disciplinary action, if any. No adjudicatory review of conduct of a Member, officer or employee of the Senate may be conducted, or report or resolution or recommendation relating to such an adjudicatory review of conduct may be made, except by the affirmative recorded vote of not less than four members of the Committee.

Member's party conference regarding the Member's seniority or positions of responsibility, or a combination of these;

(ii) In the case of an officer or employee, a recommendation to the Senate of dismissal, suspension, payment of restitution, or a combination of these;

(iii) In the case where the Committee determines, after according to the Member, officer, or employee due notice and opportunity for a hearing, that misconduct occurred warranting discipline less serious than discipline by the full Senate, and subject to the provisions of paragraph (h) of this rule relating to appeal, by a unanimous vote of six members order that a Member, officer or employee be reprimanded or pay restitution or both;

(iv) In the case where the Committee determines that misconduct is inadvertent, technical, or otherwise of a de minimis nature, issue a public or private letter of admonition to a Member, officer or employee, which shall not be subject to appeal to the Senate.

(3) In the case where the Committee determines, upon consideration of all the evidence, that the facts do not warrant a finding that there is substantial credible evidence which provides substantial cause for the Committee to conclude that a violation within the jurisdiction of the Committee has occurred, the Committee may dismiss the matter.

(4) Promptly, after the conclusion of the adjudicatory review, the Committee's report and recommendation, if any, shall be forwarded to the Secretary of the Senate, and a copy shall be provided to the complainant and the respondent. The full report and recommendation, if any, shall be printed and made public, unless the Committee determines by the recorded vote of not less than four members of the Committee that it should remain confidential.

(h) RIGHT OF APPEAL:

(1) Any individual who is the subject of a reprimand or order of restitution, or both, pursuant to subsection (g)(2)(ii), may, within 30 days of the Committee's report to the Senate of its action imposing a reprimand or order of restitution, or both, appeal to the Senate by providing written notice of the appeal to the Committee and the presiding officer of the Senate. The presiding officer shall cause the notice of the appeal to be printed in the Congressional Record and the Senate Journal.

(2) S. Res. 338 provides that a motion to proceed to consideration of an appeal pursuant to paragraph (1) shall be highly privileged and not debatable. If the motion to proceed to consideration of the appeal is agreed to, the appeal shall be decided on the basis of the Committee's report to the Senate. Debate on the appeal shall be limited to 10 hours, which shall be divided equally between, and controlled by, those favoring and those opposing the appeal.

RULE 5: PROCEDURES FOR HEARINGS

(a) RIGHT TO HEARING: The Committee may hold a public or executive hearing in any preliminary inquiry, adjudicatory review, or other proceeding. The Committee shall accord a respondent an opportunity for a hearing before it recommends disciplinary action against that respondent to the Senate or before it imposes an order of restitution or reprimand. (Sec Rule 4(d).)

(b) NON-PUBLIC HEARINGS: The Committee may at any time during a hearing determine in accordance with paragraph 5(b) of Rule XXVI of the Standing Rules of the Senate whether to receive the testimony of specific witnesses in executive session. If a witness desires to express a preference for testifying in public or in executive session, he or she shall so notify the Committee at least five days before he or she is scheduled to testify.

(c) ADJUDICATORY HEARINGS: The Committee may, by the recorded vote of not less than four members of the Committee, designate any public or executive hearing as an adjudicatory hearing; and any hearing which is concerned with possible disciplinary action against a respondent or respondents designated by the Committee shall be an adjudicatory hearing. In any adjudicatory hearing, the procedures described in paragraph (i) shall apply.

(d) SUBPOENA POWER: The Committee may require, by subpoena or otherwise, the attendance and testimony of such witnesses and the production of such correspondence, books, papers, documents or other articles as it deems advisable. (Sec Rule 6.)

(g) WITNESSES:

(1) A subpoena or other request to testify shall be served on a witness sufficiently in advance of his or her scheduled appearance to allow the witness a reasonable period of time, as determined by the Committee, to prepare for the hearing and to employ counsel if desired.

(2) The Committee may, by recorded vote of not less than four members of the Committee, rule that no member of the Committee or staff or outside counsel shall make public the name of any witness subpoenaed by the Committee before the date of that witness's scheduled appearance, except as specifically authorized by the Chairman and Vice Chairman, acting jointly.

(3) Any witness desiring to read a prepared or written statement in executive or public hearings shall file a copy of such statement with the Committee at least two working days in advance of the hearing at which the statement is to be presented. The Chairman and Vice Chairman shall determine whether such statements may be read or placed in the record of the hearing.

(4) Insofar as practicable, each witness shall be permitted to present a brief oral opening statement, if he or she desires to do so.

(h) RIGHT TO TESTIFY: Any person whose name is mentioned or who is specifically identified or otherwise referred to in testimony or in statements made by a Committee member, staff member or outside counsel, or any witness, and who reasonably believes that the statement tends to adversely affect his or her reputation may—

(1) Request to appear personally before the Committee to testify in his or her own behalf; or

(2) File a sworn statement of facts relevant to the testimony or other evidence or statement of which he or she complained. Such request and such statement shall be submitted to the Committee for its consideration and action.

(i) CONDUCT OF WITNESSES AND OTHER ATTENDEES: The Presiding Officer may punish any breaches of order and decorum by censure and exclusion from the hearings. The Committee, by majority vote, may recommend to the Senate that the offender be cited for contempt of Congress.

(j) ADJUDICATORY HEARING PROCEDURES:

(1) NOTICE OF HEARINGS: A copy of the public announcement of an adjudicatory hearing, required by paragraph (e), shall be furnished together with a copy of these Rules to all witnesses at the time that they are subpoenaed or otherwise summoned to testify.

(2) PREPARATION FOR ADJUDICATORY HEARINGS:

(A) At least five working days prior to the commencement of an adjudicatory hearing, the Committee shall provide the following information and documents to the respondent, if any:

- (i) a list of proposed witnesses to be called at the hearing;
- (ii) copies of all documents expected to be introduced as exhibits at the hearing; and
- (iii) a brief statement as to the nature of the testimony expected to be given by each witness to be called at the hearing.

(B) At least two working days prior to the commencement of an adjudicatory hearing, the respondent, if any, shall provide the information and documents described in divisions (i), (ii) and (iii) of subparagraph (A) to the Committee.

(C) At the discretion of the Committee, the information and documents to be exchanged under this paragraph shall be subject to an appropriate agreement limiting access and disclosure.

(D) If a respondent refuses to provide the information and documents to the Committee (see (A) and (B) of this subparagraph), or if a respondent or other individual violates an agreement limiting access and disclosure, the Committee, by majority vote, may recommend to the Senate that the offender be cited for contempt of Congress.

(3) SWEARING OF WITNESSES: All witnesses who testify at adjudicatory hearings shall be sworn unless the Presiding Officer, for good cause, decides that a witness does not have to be sworn.

(4) RIGHT TO COUNSEL: Any witness at an adjudicatory hearing may be accompanied by counsel of his or her own choosing, who shall be permitted to advise the witness of his or her legal rights during the testimony.

(5) RIGHT TO CROSS-EXAMINE AND CALL WITNESSES:

(A) In adjudicatory hearings, any respondent and any other person who obtains the permission of the Committee, may personally or through counsel cross-examine witnesses called by the Committee and may call witnesses in his or her own behalf.

(B) A respondent may apply to the Committee for the issuance of subpoenas for the appearance of witnesses or the production of documents on his or her behalf. An application shall be approved upon a concise showing by the respondent that the proposed testimony or evidence is relevant and appropriate, as determined by the Chairman and Vice Chairman.

(C) With respect to witnesses called by a respondent, or other individual given permission by the Committee, each such witness shall first be examined by the party who called the witness or by that party's counsel.

(D) At least one working day before a witness's scheduled appearance, a witness or a witness's counsel may submit to the Committee written questions proposed to be asked of that witness. If the Committee determines that it is necessary, such questions may be asked by any member of the Committee, or by any Committee staff member if directed by a Committee member. The witness or witness's counsel may also submit additional sworn testimony for the record within twenty-four hours after the last day that the witness has testified. The insertion of such testimony in that day's record is subject to the approval of the Chairman and Vice Chairman acting jointly within five days after the testimony is received.

(6) ADMISSIBILITY OF EVIDENCE:

(A) The object of the hearing shall be to ascertain the truth. Any evidence that may be relevant and probative shall be admissible unless privileged under the Federal Rules of Evidence. Rules of evidence shall not be applied strictly, but the Presiding Officer shall exclude irrelevant or unduly repetitious testimony. Objections going only to the weight that should be given evidence will not justify its exclusion.

(B) The Presiding Officer shall rule upon any question of the admissibility of testimony or other evidence presented to the Committee. Such rulings shall be final unless reversed or modified by a recorded vote of not less than four members of the Committee before the recess of that day's hearings.

(C) Notwithstanding paragraphs (A) and (B), in any matter before the Committee involving allegations of sexual discrimination, including sexual harassment, or sexual misconduct, b a Member, officer, or employee within the jurisdiction of the Committee, the Committee shall be guided by the standards and procedures of Rule 412 of the Federal Rules of Evidence, except that the Committee may admit evidence subject to the provisions of this paragraph only upon a determination of not less than four members of the full Committee that the interests of justice require that such evidence be admitted.

(7) SUPPLEMENTARY HEARING PROCEDURES: The Committee may adopt any additional special hearing procedures that it deems necessary or appropriate to a particular adjudicatory hearing. Copies of such supplementary procedures shall be furnished to witnesses and respondents, and shall be made available upon request to any member of the public.

(8) TRANSCRIPTS:

(1) An accurate stenographic or recorded transcript shall be made of all public and executive hearings. Any member of the Committee, Committee staff member, outside counsel retained by the Committee, or witness may examine a copy of the transcript retained by the Committee of his or her own remarks and may suggest to the official reporter any typographical or transcription errors. If the reporter declines to make the requested corrections, the member, staff member, outside counsel or witness may request a ruling by the Chairman and Vice Chairman, acting jointly. Any member or witness shall return the transcript with suggested corrections to the Committee offices within five working days after receipt of the transcript, or as soon thereafter as is practicable. If the testimony was given in executive session, the member or witness may only inspect the transcript at a location determined by the Chairman and Vice Chairman, acting jointly. Any questions arising with respect to the processing and correction of transcripts shall be decided by the Chairman and Vice Chairman, acting jointly.

(2) Except for the record of a hearing which is closed to the public, each transcript shall be printed as soon as is practicable after receipt of the corrected version. The Chairman and Vice Chairman, acting jointly, may order the transcript of a hearing to be printed without the corrections of a member or witness if they determine that such member or witness has been afforded a reasonable time to correct such transcript and such transcript has not been returned within such time.

(3) The Committee shall furnish each witness, at no cost, one transcript copy of that witness's testimony given at a public hearing. If the testimony was given in executive session, then a transcript copy shall be provided upon request, subject to appropriate conditions and restrictions prescribed by the Chairman and Vice Chairman. If any individual violates such conditions and restrictions, the Committee may recommend by majority vote that he or she be cited for contempt of Congress.

RULE 6: SUBPOENAS AND DEPOSITIONS

(a) SUBPOENAS:

(1) AUTHORIZATION FOR ISSUANCE: Subpoenas for the attendance and testimony of witnesses at depositions or hearings, and subpoenas for the production of documents and tangible things at depositions, hearings, or other times and places designated therein, may be authorized for issuance by either (A) a majority vote of the Committee, or (B) the Chairman and Vice Chairman, acting jointly, at any time during a preliminary inquiry, adjudicatory review, or other proceeding.

(2) SIGNATURE AND SERVICE: All subpoenas shall be signed by the Chairman or the Vice Chairman and may be served by any person eighteen years of age or older, who is designated by the Chairman or Vice Chairman. Each subpoena shall be served with a copy of the Rules of the Committee and a brief statement of the purpose of the Committee's proceeding.

(3) WITHDRAWAL OF SUBPOENA: The Committee, by recorded vote of not less than four members of the Committee, may withdraw any subpoena authorized for issuance by it or authorized for issuance by the Chairman and Vice Chairman, acting jointly. The Chairman and Vice Chairman, acting jointly, may withdraw any subpoena authorized for issuance by them.

(b) DEPOSITIONS:

(1) PERSONS AUTHORIZED TO TAKE DEPOSITIONS: Depositions may be taken by any member of the Committee designated by the Chairman and Vice Chairman, acting jointly, or by any other person designated by the Chairman and Vice Chairman, acting jointly, including outside counsel, Committee staff, other employees of the Senate, or government employees detailed to the Committee.

(2) DEPOSITION NOTICES: Notices for the taking of depositions shall be authorized by the Committee, or the Chairman and Vice Chairman, acting jointly, and issued by the Chairman, Vice Chairman, or a Committee staff member or outside counsel designated by the Chairman and Vice Chairman, acting jointly. Depositions may be taken at any time during a preliminary inquiry, adjudicatory review or other proceeding. Deposition notices shall specify a time and place for examination. Unless otherwise specified, the deposition shall be in private, and the testimony taken and documents produced shall be deemed for the purpose of these rules to have been received in a closed or executive session of the Committee. The Committee shall not initiate procedures leading to criminal or civil enforcement proceedings for a witness's failure to appear, or to testify, or to produce documents, unless the deposition notice was accompanied by a subpoena authorized for issuance by the Committee, or the Chairman and Vice Chairman, acting jointly.

(3) COUNSEL AT DEPOSITIONS: Witnesses may be accompanied at a deposition by counsel to advise them of their rights.

(4) DEPOSITION PROCEDURE: Witnesses at depositions shall be examined upon oath administered by an individual authorized by law to administer oaths, or administered by any member of the Committee if one is present. Questions may be propounded by any person or persons who are authorized to take depositions for the Committee. If a witness objects to a question and refuses to testify, or refuses to produce a document, any member of the Committee who is present may rule on the objection and, if the objection is overruled, direct the witness to answer the question or produce the document. If no member of the Committee is present, the individual who has been designated by the Chairman and Vice Chairman, acting jointly, to take the deposition may proceed with the deposition, or may, at that time or at a subsequent time, seek a ruling by telephone or otherwise on the objection from the Chairman or Vice Chairman of the Committee, who may refer the matter to the Committee or rule on the objection. If the Chairman or Vice Chairman, or the Committee upon referral, overrules the objection, the Chairman, Vice Chairman, or the Committee as the case may be, may direct the witness to answer the question or produce the document. The Committee shall not initiate procedures leading to civil or criminal enforcement unless the witness refuses to testify or produce documents after having been directed to do so.

(5) FILING OF DEPOSITIONS: Deposition testimony shall be transcribed or electronically recorded. If the deposition is transcribed, the individual administering the oath shall certify on the transcript that the witness was duly sworn in his or her presence and the transcriber shall certify that the transcript is a true record of the testimony. The transcript with these certifications shall be filed with the chief clerk of the Committee, and the witness shall be furnished with access to a copy at the Committee's offices for review. Upon inspecting the transcript, within a time limit set by the Chairman and Vice Chairman, acting jointly, a witness may request in writing changes in the transcript to correct errors in transcription. The witness may also bring to the attention of the Committee errors of fact in the witness's testimony by submitting a sworn statement about those facts with a request that it be attached to the transcript. The Chairman and Vice Chairman, acting jointly, may rule on the witness's request, and the changes or attachments allowed shall be certified by the Committee's chief clerk. If the witness fails to make any request under this paragraph within the time limit set, this fact shall be noted by the Committee's chief clerk. Any person authorized by the Committee may stipulate with the witness to changes in this procedure.

RULE 7: VIOLATIONS OF LAW; PERJURY;

LEGISLATIVE RECOMMENDATIONS; EDUCATIONAL MANDATE; AND APPLICABLE RULES AND STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

(b) PERJURY: Any person who knowingly and willfully swears falsely to a sworn complaint or any other sworn statement to the Committee does so under penalty of perjury. The Committee may refer any such case to the Attorney General for prosecution.

(c) LEGISLATIVE RECOMMENDATIONS: The Committee shall recommend to the Senate by report or resolution such additional rules, regulations, or other legislative measures as it determines to be necessary or desirable to ensure proper standards of conduct by Members, officers, or employees of the Senate. The Committee may conduct such inquiries as it deems necessary to prepare such a report or resolution, including the holding of hearings in public or executive session and the use of subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses or the production of materials. No provisions of the Senate Code of Official Conduct shall apply to or require disclosure of any act, relationship, or transaction which occurred prior to the effective date of the applicable provision of the Code.

(2) The Committee may initiate an adjudicatory review of any alleged violation of a rule or law which was in effect prior to the enactment of the Senate Code of Official Conduct if the alleged violation occurred while such rule or law was in effect and the violation was not a matter resolved on the merits by the predecessor Committee.
