LOS ANGELES – The Los Angeles County Democratic Party (LACDP) voted to endorse Paul Krekorian for Los Angeles City Council, District 2, in the September 22, 2009, special election to fill the vacancy created by Wendy Greuel's election as Los Angeles City Controller.

"Paul Krekorian is an extraordinary leader who will stand up for the people of Los Angeles. As a longtime neighborhood activist, local school board member and Assembly Member, Paul has always been a tireless advocate for creating jobs, promoting smart growth, and improving education, and we expect no less of him as City Council Member. He has the experience and relationships to help bridge the gap between Sacramento and Los Angeles and he will tackle key issues in the district and help restore the public's confidence in city government.

"Paul is a problem-solver and coalition-builder who will work to improve the quality of life for the residents of the district. The Democratic Party proudly endorses Paul Krekorian for Los Angeles City Council, District 2," said Eric C. Bauman, Chair of the Los Angeles County Democratic Party.

Los Angeles City Council, District 2 covers Mulholland Drive in the Hollywood Hills to Big Tujunga Road in the Verdugo Hills. It serves Lake View Terrace, La Tuna Canyon, North Hollywood, Shadow Hills, Sherman Oaks, Studio City, Sunland, Sun Valley, Tujunga, Valley Village, Valley Glen and Van Nuys.

The Los Angeles County Democratic Party (LACDP) is the official governing body of the Democratic Party in the County of Los Angeles and works in cooperation with the State and National Democratic Committees. LACDP is the largest local Democratic Party entity in the United States, representing nearly 2 million registered Democrats. Endorsements issued by the LACDP in local and municipal races become the official endorsements of the California Democratic Party.
