

Ventura County Supporters and
ACLU Ventura County present two speakers on:

DETENTION, PRISONER RIGHTS AND PRISON CONDITIONS

Saturday, April 16, 2011

1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Newbury Park Library

2321 Borchard Road, Newbury Park

Esther Lim, the ACLU/SC Jails Project Coordinator will discuss the role of the ACLU JAILS PROJECT and conditions inside the jails. Ms. Lim recently witnessed two Los Angeles County sheriff's deputies beating an inmate who was being "treated like a punching bag" at the Twin Towers Jail.

Ahilan Arulanantham, ACLU/SC Director of Immigrants Rights and National Security has successfully litigated a number of cases to protect the rights of immigrants at all levels of the federal judiciary. Mr. Arulanantham will be discussing the federal immigration detention system.

DIRECTIONS FROM MOORPARK/SIMI VALLEY AREA: Take 118 West to the 23 South, and take the 101 North, off at Borchard Road which puts you on the overpass (of #101), continue south, turn right on Michael, left into Library Plaza parking lot, the Library is on the right side.

DIRECTIONS FROM OXNARD/VENTURA AREA: Take 101 South, take the Borchard offramp, turn right on Michael, left into Library Plaza parking lot, the Library is on the right side.

DIRECTIONS FROM AREAS SOUTH: Take 101 North, take the Borchard offramp which puts you on the overpass (of #101). Continue south, turn right on Michael, left into Library Plaza parking lot, the Library is on the right side.

Presented by Southern California ACLU Ventura County Chapter

For more information contact R. Henry at (805) 578-0563

or e-mail aclu.vc@verizon.net