

2nd Annual Obama Loving Day

*Fighting racial prejudice through education and building multicultural community since 2004 **

Potluck BBQ & Pool Party (Community Service)

JUNE 14, 2009 From 11:00AM SHARP to 4:00PM

Come and celebrate Barack's mixed heritage and the 1967 Loving Supreme Court Decision that struck down laws against interracial marriage, and the new fight for marriage equality. Reunite with campaign friends and meet new Change Movement Organizers and Volunteers.

All kids must have on floaties, and be accompanied by an adult at all times!
Don't forget to bring sunblock and towels.

Bring Items by letter of Last Name:

A-D Meat, Fish or Veggie Burgers Buns to BBQ
E-G Chips, Snacks, Desserts
H-L Beverages --Water, Beer, Wine, Soda, Kids Drinks
M-P Salads and sides
Q-V Fruits and Veggies
W-Z Ice

Suggested Donation: $10 for Adults, $5 for Kids/Students

Funds fundraised go to OC and San Diego Military and Veterans for Change Outreach Program - La Jolla Democratic Club.

We will also be collecting food and supplies for the Community Resource Center (CRC). The CRC has a critical need for can goods (tomato products, nut butters, meats, vegetables, pastas), dry goods (pastas, beans, rice and grains), hygiene products (babies and adult diapers, feminine hygiene products, baby wipes and green cleaning products), paper goods (toilet and towel paper) and bottled water for needy North Coast families.

Please bring these items to the BBQ and we will deliver them to the Community Resource Center's Emergency Food and Supply Pantry.

* "Loving Day" Because on June 12, 1967, the Supreme Court ruled that laws across the U.S. that prohibited interracial couples from marrying were unconstitutional. The Associated Press picture courtesy of Digital Journal Image shows the couple, Mildred and Richard Loving. 41 years later, there's something like 4.3 million mixed-marriage couples in the United States. And now the son of a relationship once considered contrary to "every sentiment of pure American spirit" is one step removed from the American people placing him into the highest office in the land, that of course, is our President Barack Obama.
