Don Bustany was Born in Detroit to Lebanese-American parents.

He and Casey Kasem were co-creators of the syndicated radio program "American Top 40" and "American Country Countdown".

Camera coordinator of "The Mary Tyler Moore Show", "The Bob Newhart Show", and other MTM shows.

He produced local talk shows on several LA stations.

He has a BA in Liberal Arts, Wayne State University, and an MS in Communications from Syracuse University.

Bustany is a Palestinian right of return activist.

Since 1996, he has produced and hosted the radio program "Middle East in Focus" on KPFK FM, the LA Pacifica radio network.

His "mission is to fill the many gaps left by the mainstream media in their coverage" of the Middle East. A member of the advisory committee of the American-Arab Anti-Discrimination Committee in the 1990's, he served four terms as president of the organization's Los Angeles chapter.
