

St. Stephen's Episcopal Church *

will host

Santa Clarita Alternative Gift Fair

Saturday, Nov 7, 10am – 3pm

Sunday, Nov 8, Noon - 3pm in Spurling Hall

Shoppers can find gifts for their families and friends that benefit someone else:

food for a shelter, a goat or rabbits or chickens
for a family in an impoverished area of the world, or a gift for a foster child.

“It’s a non-profit response to consumerism, in a festival, market booth setting. The gifts you purchase always fit because they revolve around your loved ones and the issues you care about.” The Alternative Gift Fair is a different kind of shopping experience,” says Mary Jo Higginbotham, Chair, of the event.

Participating organizations:

SCV Food Pantry, Angel Interfaith Network,
New Leash on Life, Ten Thousand Villages, Hillside Homes for Children, and Episcopal Relief and Development

* located 24901 Orchard Village Rd, Santa Clarita (one block north off Lyons Ave – across from Ralph’s grocery store).
Call 661.259.7307. Admission is free.

Malcolm Blue <mblue2@earthlink.net>

