

Statewide Field Organizer for California Clean Money Campaign

The California Clean Money Campaign, a non-partisan, non-profit organization, seeks an experienced professional to serve as its Statewide Field Organizer starting ASAP. This is a half-time position, with the potential for full-time, building statewide grassroots support for full public funding of election campaigns in California and for political advertising disclosure legislation that we are sponsoring.

Location: Culver City, CA

We need someone who:

- Is aggressive, energetic, innovative and motivated by the prospect of a grassroots campaign.
- Is a leader in the community, possessing a strong work ethic.
- Has good time management skills, detail oriented, and can work long hours independently.
- Outgoing and willing to share their personal story with others in the community.
- Can exceed goals and meet deadlines in a fast paced environment.
- Ability to work in a team atmosphere with a positive attitude and a good sense of humor.
- Has a car and can travel often.

Responsibilities include:

- Work closely with the Executive Director and other staff to set overall organizing priorities and to design and implement public education and mobilization strategies.
- Primary responsibility for contact and support of volunteer groups.
- Organize new working groups of CCMC members and constituents in key communities.
- Represent CCMC at coalition meetings, tabling events, rallies, public speaking engagements, and/or other events when requested by the Executive Director.
- Data entry and maintaining data integrity.
- Other duties as directed by the Executive Director.

Ideal applicants will have the following skills and experience:

- 2+ cycles of experience with field or community organizing including targeting, training, voter identification, and get-out-the-vote drives
- Knowledge of California politics a plus
- Working knowledge of the VAN and Microsoft Office programs
- Strong oral and written communication skills and personal organizational skills
- Ability to work long days and irregular hours and maintain a positive, energetic attitude
- Bachelor's degree or equivalent practical experience

CCMC is an Equal Opportunity Employer; applicants of all backgrounds, ethnicities, ages, genders, and sexual orientation are encouraged to apply.

Position reports to and receives day-to-day direction from CCMC's President. The position works out of the CCMC office in Culver City, CA and will start as soon as possible. Submit resume and cover letter by e-mail to info@CAClean.org or by fax to (888) 633-8898. No calls please.
