Counselors to America's Small Business

Its History, Philosophy, People and How You Can Do Business With Them

SCORE's Los Angeles Chapter, as a business community service in conjunction with The Los Angeles Athletic Club, is pleased to invite you to an informative and valuable free event with COSTCO Wholesale's Vice President and Senior General Merchandise Manager, John Eagan.

Discover how COSTCO has grown to over 550 locations, employs over 142,000 people, serves 57 million members, has sales over $71 billion [$1.3 billion profit]-and is still growing strong. Learn how it became #29 on the Fortune 500 and how it earned America's #1 Customer Satisfaction Rating.

Plus, quite importantly-know exactly what it takes for you to do business with COSTCO.

COSTCO Wholesale, the largest membership warehouse club in the world [based on sales volume] and the United States' fifth largest retailer is doing something right, actually a lot of things right, and SCORE L.A. wants you to know all about it-so make your reservation today.

About our speaker: John Eagan established COSTCO's L.A. Regional office in 1987. After a leadership assignment in Washington, he returned to his L.A. Region and has overseen its growth to fifty-six warehouses with annual sales of $11 billion.
