

Certification for Truck Driver/Heavy Equipment Operator NO COST TRAINING FOR VETERANS ONLY

There is no better time to get the necessary training for a high paying career in the construction industry. You built Afghanistan and Iraq, now let's build America. You paid your dues, now it's time to get paid.

Orientations every Tuesday at 9:00am through June 30

Orientations at College of Instrument Technology, located at 17156 Bellflower Blvd., Bellflower, CA 90706
YOU MUST BRING A COPY OF THIS FLYER TO THE ORIENTATION AND TELL THEM MARK LEWIS SENT YOU!

Priority for Certain Military Occupational Specialties

MOS 21E: Heavy Construction Equipment Operator/MOS 21F: Crane Operator/MOS 62B: Construction Equipment Repairer

Priority training for the most qualified candidates having the following documents at orientation:

- Clean DMV H6, no tickets, no DUI's
- Drivers License
- DD214 with honorable discharge
- Social Security Card
- Certificate Of Eligibility from the Veterans Administration

Qualified Post 9/11 veterans may receive $2175 for monthly living costs during training. Start now with Certificate Of Eligibility! (COE available online at www.va.gov, click on VONAPP)

Invest 360 hours over the next 12 - 20 weeks, earn 16 certifications and gain a new civilian career.

Train at your pace: Full-time for 12 weeks at 30 hours a week/Part-time for 20 weeks at 18 hours a week

- Truck Driver (18 wheeler, Lowboy, Flatbed, Bus, Dump Truck & Water Truck)
- Backhoe, Skid Steer, Road Grader, Skip Loader, Track Excavator, Truck Excavator, Dozer, Loader, and Earth Mover
- Swing Cab Mobile Hydraulic Crane

Tired of being hungry, then it's time to EAT. Education

Contact Mark
323 867 4937

Attainment &

TraininG services. P.O. Box 512844, Los Angeles, CA 90051

MarkLewis@educationalattainmentservices.com

CIT award recipient for over 90% Job Placement in 2011, presented by the South Bay Workforce Investment Board.

If necessary, housing assistance may be provided for students while successfully attending training.